COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a study and analysis course of Great Comedy Films with an emphasis on the process of how comedy works, the different types of comedy films, and comedy trends from the beginning of cinema through current day.

We also profile some of the comic geniuses through film history, and view and dissect some of the major films ever created. The American Film Institute’s Great Comedy Films list (aka 100 Greatest Laughs) is used as a reference guide for the class.

There are some of you that may complain that the films that are shown in this class aren’t more current. The AFI list only goes until 2000 – so great movies like “The Hangover Part 3”, Adam Sandler’s “Blended” or “Alvin and the Chipmunks Part 4 – Road Chip” aren’t going to be screened.

I know, I know, “Are you saying that there are no great comedy films made in the last twenty years?” It’s not me saying that. But the AFI has not updated their list in twenty years. Take from that what you will.

My favorite part of the class isn’t watching new movies. It’s watching classic films, you know – the ones that you don’t see unless someone makes you. That’s this course in a nutshell – you watch movies that you never would have wanted to – and then you do and you’re like “that movie was great!”
COURSE FORMAT:

- This class is an “online” class. It means that you don’t have to sit in a classroom. The classroom is on a computer! The class is delivered with almost everything you need through this thing called the “internet.” I’ve checked it out and it’s pretty sweet. And I like using “air quotes” when I talk.

- The class is divided into Four (4) Units, with Three (3) Sections each, for a total of Twelve (12) Sections. Think of them as chapters in a book. Each Unit takes the student (“You”) through the magic of comedy films in a somewhat chronological order.

- These Units and the Sections are ALL OPEN at the beginning of the Semester so you may proceed at your own pace. Units will close periodically during the semester, based upon the semester’s academic calendar.

- So make sure you know when the Closing Dates are, or you could miss them (which translates to make sure you quadrouple check the due dates cause they don’t always fall on the same day of the week). And that would be a terrible thing. Due dates can be found on the course website as well as at the end of this syllabus packet.

Here’s the Order to Do Things In:

- I will be sending the entire class emails/ announcements from the course platform to your ASU email. In these emails/ announcements I will give you important reminders on Units and the Final, along with important updates. It is extremely important that you are able to receive these emails. If you are not receiving them first check your spam folder and if that doesn’t work, then contact me. SERIOUSLY DON’T MISS THESE EMAILS.
Each Section has different assignments you will need to complete. Chapter Readings, Instructor Lecture, Feature Film, Quiz and a Discussion Board.

There are a list of the Chapters in the book (as well as the Supplemental Material) that are referenced directly for that Section. Read those Chapters.

You will need to listen (and watch) each of the lectures. Each lecture is broken into different parts. They are listed Part 1, Part 2, sometimes there is a Part 3. Click the link and listen to that part of the Lecture.

There is a feature-length film for each of the Twelve Parts of the class. Be prepared that if the links for each film are not working, you may have to find it on a streaming service. There may be a small fee pending on your choice of streaming. A lot of people like the Netflix option. In which case, you are free to get all of the films from Netflix or some other way of watching the film - instead of watching them through the interface. Just watch the film. Don’t pretend you don’t share your friend’s Netflix account. (see pg 5 for more on these.)

Then you need to go to the Quiz and then the Discussion Board. There’s a whole ton of points you can earn on these activities that will help you in the overall goal of passing the class. Some of you may aspire to more than just passing the class!

At the end of each Unit there is a Reflection Question where I ask you a comprehensive question based solely on the information from within the Unit, and you need to respond with a written answer. Technically it’s typed. But I think you know what I mean. These may seem like trick questions but they are created to make you think so don’t answer right away and really read the prompts and what it’s asking you. If you have issues understanding it, contact me.
The Reflection Answer has a minimum of 125 words and will need to be written in as close as possible to the standard essay format – introductory paragraph with a thesis statement, three paragraph body and conclusion paragraph. Oh and spelling and grammar. You know everything they taught you in grade school. Plus it’s 2021 spell check is simple and sometimes happens on it’s own.

But you should still take the time to just go through your answer to make sure it’s good before submitting it. Also let someone else read it. They will catch something that you didn’t. You will also need to cite the course text book. This means after you give your information that you took from the book you need to let me know which page you found it on and the author which in this case is Prof. LaMont. So it should look something like this: (LaMont p.129) To not do so is a minimum deduction of 10 POINTS!! Make sure you save your answers in a separate document before submitting!!

So there are a total of Four Reflection Answers you will have to write for the class. Only four – sorry to disappoint all the overachievers out there.

Are you still reading this? Just checking.

REQUIRED READING:

You are required to buy a book for this class. I know – you already spend a bunch of money to go to school, why am I making you buy a book?

Because this is a 400-level class…

Great Comedy Films: or How I Learned to Stop Worrying and Love Funny Movies by Chris LaMont

Yes, ASU’s very own Professor Chris LaMont wrote this, and it’s brilliant. He also designed the class so you actually hear a lot from him.
The book is available as an e-book and also hard copies are available in the ASU bookstores. Get yours today! However, DO NOT get a second hand book. Why? Because every book comes with a one time only registration code that you need to acquire supplemental materials. So do yourself a favor and buy new! That is the 2nd edition 2017 book.

Now the book is a monster. Professor LaMont spent a year working on it. And not all of the book is used for the class, for which I’ve designated the reading assignments for each of the Sections. So don’t freak out. But you’ll love this book. It’s pretty funny – and yes, LaMont thinks he’s funnier than you probably think he is.

Also without the book the best grade you can hope for getting is a B+. I’ve had students email me telling me they couldn’t afford it or they didn’t think it would be crucial for the course. All I can say is there’s nothing I can do for you if you don’t get the book. It’s very important in the course.

MOOORRRREE READING!

There are also supplemental reading materials that are intrinsic to understanding the concepts of how comedy films are made. That’s also included in the Reading Assignments and those Supplemental Materials are available through the Kendall-Hunt website that you have access to when you buy the book. So get on that.

MAJOR NOTE ABOUT THE FILMS THAT ARE SCREENING IN THE CLASS:

Because of copyright issues, ASU Online cannot show all of the films that are required to watch in the class. These films can be watched through an alternative computer-based viewing system, such as Netflix, i-tunes, Amazon or Hulu.

They are: Everything after the General. So most of the films...
It is each student’s responsibility to watch the films that are assigned in the class. You really should. Some of you might try and be clever by bluffing your way through it. Let me tell you, it never works. You have been warned…

TECHNICAL SUPPORT

This is an email from the IT Department.

Please do not contact your instructor with technical questions. He’s smart. But not that smart. Herberger Online handles all technical questions and issues that may arise in this course.

Please contact Herberger Online's support team immediately if you encounter technical issues while completing an assignment and you are unable to resolve the problem.

Technical support is available 24/7 at:
- holsupport@asu.edu
- 1-888-298-4117
- 480-965-3057 (International)

When contacting support, please provide:
- The full name of this course (ABC 123: Long Name)
- The title(s) of any assignment(s) you’re having trouble with
- A brief overview of the problem
- Step-by-step instructions to reproduce the problem

Thank you Professor! Back to your regularly scheduled syllabus!
FMP 405 – FILM: GREAT COMEDY FILMS

SYLLABUS  SLN# 43519 / 43520  Summer A - 2021

CONTENT:

Together we will understand the great American comedy films of the last century (and a couple of decades). The different types of comedy films, the major players over the last hundred years or so in comic cinema and what makes a comedy film will be thoroughly discussed.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

All necessary and appropriate sanctions will be issued to all parties involved with plagiarizing any and all course work. Plagiarism and any other forms of academic dishonesty that is in violation with the Student Code of Conduct will not be tolerated. For more information. Please see the ASU Student Academic Integrity Policy: http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS:

To request academic accommodations due to a disability, please contact the Student Accessibility and Active Learning Services Center https://eoss.asu.edu/accessibility.

480-965-1234; TDD: 480-965-9000. This is a very important step as accommodations may be difficult to make retroactively.

Title IX is a federal law that provides that no person be excluded on the basis of sex from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and university policy make clear that sexual violence and harassment based on sex is prohibited. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs.

As a mandated reporter, I am obligated to report any information I become aware of regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence and dating violence. ASU Counseling Services, https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling, is available if you wish to discuss any concerns confidentially and privately.
If you have a letter from their office indicating that you have a disability which requires academic accommodations, in order to assure that you receive your accommodations in a timely manner, please present this documentation to the instructor no later than the end of the first week of the semester so that your needs can be address effectively.

WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE:

If you wish to withdraw from this course, it is your responsibility to do so. Course registration changes can be processed through My ASU: http//my.asu.edu but you need to withdraw pretty quick. Go to the Academic Calendar and check out the deadline.

IMPORTANT NOTES ABOUT THE CLASS:

- Some of the films shown in this class will contain language that is considered obscene or profane, scenes that are graphically explicit in portraying violent or sexual acts. And that’s just the lectures.

- Also, some films could be in black and white, foreign with – God-forbid - subtitles, and may represent ideas, lifestyles or practices that are considered immoral or amoral by some standards.

- And the language - Good heavens! Some of these films may say words that are considered “Dirty” or “Obscene”. I will not go into detail, but it could be pretty shocking.

- Also since this is a course on Great Comedy Films, some of the humorous acts portrayed in the motion pictures we will study could offend particularly sensitive students.
Pratfalls, sex, bodily functions/excrement/fluids, sarcasm, sex, animal humor, stuttering, racism, genderism, ageism, politics, religion, drugs, alcohol, sex (did I already say sex?)—all topics can be explored in the comic medium. And you may not like this!

Also Professor LaMont is one of the most vital instructors at the University, but some of their comments can be considered overly sarcastic, critical, annoying, ironic, cynical, sardonic and wry. They may say things that shock you! It could be scandalous!

Seriously, he might be waaay too annoying for you. This could be another stumbling block for your full appreciation of this educational experience. He also tries to be funny sometimes. Maybe too hard. That’s when it gets tough to stomach.

And since Professor LaMont wrote the textbook, there’s a lot of things in there that may question your moral fibre. Language, descriptions of unholy acts, bad jokes—it’s all there.

Please consider these cautions and decide whether or not this class is for you. If not, you may wish to withdraw at this time.

MORE INFO

Remember there are 4 Units of 3 Sections Each. So from there...

There are TWELVE DISCUSSION BOARDS – one for each Unit and your participation is worth up to 20 points for a total of 240 points. You need to cite the text book. To not do so is a minimum deduction of 10 points!

This might be difficult for some of you with the prompt given. Let me make it clear now that even if you are asked for your opinion, you are being asked in the context of this course which requires the textbook. If you do not know how to cite the book for these assignments, contact me.
There are TWELVE QUIZZES WITH 10 TRUE AND FALSE QUESTIONS ON EACH, related to the book, each question is worth 3 points. So each Quiz is worth up to 30 (thirty) points for a grand total of 360 points available.

There are FOUR REFLECTION QUESTIONS – one for each Unit and your participation is worth up to 50 points for a total of 200 points.

- Also as part of each Unit, the Instructor will pose a Reflection Question, querying your thought processes. Your responses will be evaluated on content, communication and understanding.

- Your Reflection answers will need to be a minimum of 125 words. This is serious college-type writing. Yes, I know this is supposed to be an “Easy-A” class. It’s not quite. But still it’s pretty good.

And at the end of the course, there is the FINAL EXAM. Oh, yeah. That’s a toughie. You just can’t show up on the last day and expect to ace that without at least going through the course. And there is NO study guide provided, so make sure you take notes!

- The questions are all true/false and multiple-choice. That’s not so bad!

- The Final Exam is worth UP TO 200 points (50 questions worth 4 points each) and the window for taking the Final Exam will be available for a 48 hours.

- If you are unable to take the Final Exam during the scheduled window of opportunity, you will not be able to take it again. There are no make-up tests.
Only verifiable medical excuses or bereaving the loss of a beloved family or friend are acceptable reasons for missing a deadline. Contact your instructor and let him know if something dire is happening so an accommodation can be made.

Now there may be times where you disagree with the grade you received on an assignment, this is perfectly normal. If you would like to voice this disagreement, I will give you a one, that’s 1, week window from the closing date of the unit to email me about your concern. After that, the grade stands and I will not revisit former assignments.

A Note About Missing Assignments:

Nothing is so pressing that you can’t get online to do the quiz, reflection question or discussion board. Think about it - the Units have been open since the day the class opened. Even if it’s Unit 1, you’ve had NEARLY TWO WEEKS to complete Unit 1.

So there is no excuse for missing any assignment deadlines. And I’ve heard them all. “My dog ate the wi-fi”, is my favorite.

Part of the deal with an online course is that you will have access to a computer. It is NOT the Instructor’s responsibility if your laptop dies and the Genius Bar is booked. Go and find another computer.

If you are close to ASU then hey! Guess what?! They have communal computers for students!! WHAT? NO WAY! YES WAY! Just remember to wear a mask and stay 6 feet away from other people.

Since this is an older course, we try to update it as much as possible, but there may still be some inconsistencies between it and the syllabus. If you find any of these, the best rule to follow is: “When in doubt, follow the syllabus.”
